GENERAL ENGLISH PROGRAM (GEP)

About Us

Cambridge Campus is a new English centre located in Rabat with a new concept which offers a variety of English courses for different purposes and needs .

English is expected to become Morocco's primary foreign language in the next five years , for this reason Cambridge Campus provides a new perspective of learning English based on modern pedagogical methods .

Overview

General English program is a course designed to help learners improve their overall English language proficiency in all four language skills: speaking, listening, reading, and writing. This type of program is typically suitable for learners of all levels, from beginner to advanced .

Overall, a General English program is an excellent way for learners to develop their language skills in a supportive and structured environment, and to gain the confidence and competence needed to communicate effectively in English.

Expand your horizons with English

Looking to improve your English skills? Look no further than our General English program!

Our program is designed to help learners of all levels improve their overall English proficiency, with a focus on developing communicative competence. Whether you're a beginner or an advanced learner, our program can help you achieve your language goals and gain the confidence and skills you need to communicate effectively in English.

Our experienced instructors provide personalized instruction in all four language skills: speaking, listening, reading, and writing. You'll have plenty of opportunities to practice your English in a supportive and engaging classroom environment, and our curriculum is designed to ensure that you make rapid progress in your language learning journey.

In addition to language instruction, our General English program also includes cultural components that help you understand the cultural contexts in which English is used. You'll learn about the cultural practices, traditions, and values of English-speaking countries, as well as the different varieties of English spoken around the world.
