ALEPH PROGRAM

About Us

Welcome to our immersive Arabic Language Program, an enriching opportunity to benefit from linguistic and cultural journey in the captivating country of Morocco. This academic program combines language acquisition with an in-depth exploration of Moroccan culture, taking place in Rabat, the historical / political and cultural capital city of Morocco . The program is hosted by Cambridge Campus Rabat ( a language school in Rabat)

Overview

During the session in Rabat metropolitan area , you will be fully immersed in the Arabic language and surrounded by the rich cultural tapestry that makes Morocco so enchanting. Aleph Program unique design ensures that you not only gain proficiency in Arabic but also delve deep into the heart of Moroccan traditions, customs, and ways of life.

Aleph Program stands out by offering a comprehensive and dynamic approach to language acquisition. You will engage in interactive classroom sessions led by experienced instructors who employ proven teaching methods, catering to all language proficiency levels. From foundational grammar and vocabulary to advanced conversational skills, your linguistic journey will be tailored to meet your individual needs and goals.

Why Aleph Program ?

Our Arabic Language Immersion Program is designed to provide a transformative language learning experience. The rationale behind this program is rooted in the recognition of the immense value and importance of Arabic as a global language. With over 400 million native speakers across the Middle East and North Africa, Arabic serves as a gateway to a rich cultural heritage, economic opportunities, and increased global connectivity.

The program's primary objective is to immerse participants in the Arabic language and culture, fostering a deep understanding of the language's nuances, grammar, and vocabulary. By embracing an immersive approach, students will be exposed to authentic Arabic conversations, literature, and traditions, allowing them to develop fluency and cultural competency simultaneously.

We firmly believe that language acquisition is not limited to mere linguistic competence but also encompasses intercultural understanding. Through the Arabic Language Immersion Program, participants will gain a comprehensive understanding of the Arab world's diverse traditions, history, customs, and societal norms. This immersive experience will enable students to communicate effectively, not only through words but also through a profound appreciation and respect for the Arabic language and its cultural context.

Nurturing Dynamic Learning and Cultural Connections

Aleph Program encourages a dynamic and interactive learning environment. With a combination of engaging classroom instruction, interactive activities, language exchanges, and cultural outings, students will have ample opportunities to practice and apply their language skills in real-life situations. By fostering a supportive and inclusive learning community, we aim to create an environment where participants feel motivated, empowered, and inspired to embrace the challenges and rewards of learning Arabic.

Our Arabic Language Immersion Program is a gateway to not only mastering the Arabic language but also fostering cross-cultural connections, expanding horizons, and embracing the beauty of the Arabic Language.

During their journey through Morocco, students will be supported by a dedicated team that will ensure their safety, comfort, and overall satisfaction. From arranging accommodation and cultural excursions to providing ongoing support and guidance, we are committed to creating an unforgettable experience for each participant.

The Aleph Program curriculum is carefully structured to cater to learners of varying proficiency levels, from beginners to advanced learners. It encompasses a comprehensive range of linguistic components, including grammar, vocabulary, syntax, phonetics, reading comprehension, writing skills, and oral communication. Through a series of meticulously designed lessons, interactive exercises, and practical applications, participants will develop a solid foundation in Arabic linguistics and a nuanced understanding of the language's intricate structures.

In order to provide an immersive cultural experience, the Aleph Program complements classroom instruction with a diverse array of cultural activities and excursions. Participants will engage in field trips to historical sites, museums, and cultural events, facilitating an in-depth exploration of Moroccan heritage, traditions, and societal dynamics. Furthermore, language exchanges with native Arabic speakers, guest lectures by esteemed scholars, and cultural workshops will enable participants to develop an intimate familiarity with the nuances and cultural contexts associated with the Arabic language.

To ensure optimal learning outcomes, the Aleph Program maintains small class sizes, allowing for personalized attention and individualized instruction. Our highly qualified instructors are not only experts in Arabic linguistics but also skilled facilitators who employ pedagogical approaches aligned with best practices in language acquisition. Participants will receive ongoing guidance, feedback, and support, fostering a dynamic and intellectually stimulating learning environment.

The Aleph Program's curriculum is designed not only to foster language proficiency but also to cultivate cross-cultural understanding and global citizenship. By immersing participants in the rich cultural tapestry of Morocco, the program promotes intercultural competency, empathy, and appreciation for diverse perspectives. Participants will acquire the skills necessary to navigate intercultural interactions with sensitivity, adaptability, and respect.

In conclusion, the Aleph Program offers an academically rigorous and culturally immersive curriculum that empowers participants to master the Arabic language while developing a deep appreciation for the Arab world's diverse heritage. Through our rigorous academic curriculum, coupled with cultural engagement activities, participants will emerge equipped with the linguistic skills, cultural understanding, and global perspectives necessary for successful engagement in an Arabic-speaking environment.

SYLLABUS

Coursebooks

The syllabus of the Aleph Program is thoughtfully designed to provide a comprehensive and structured approach to Arabic language immersion. The program's syllabus encompasses various language components, cultural exploration, and skills development, ensuring a well-rounded learning experience for participants

EVALUATION AND ASSESSMENT

The Aleph Program recognizes the importance of ongoing evaluation and assessment to monitor participants' progress, provide valuable feedback, and ensure the effectiveness of the language immersion experience. Throughout the six-week program, various evaluation methods will be employed to assess participants' language proficiency, cultural understanding, and overall growth.

Formative assessments will be conducted regularly during the program to gauge participants' understanding of the curriculum materials and their ability to apply newly acquired language skills. These assessments may include quizzes, language drills, oral presentations, written assignments, and participation in classroom activities as well as portfolios. Formative assessments serve as opportunities for instructors to provide constructive feedback, address individual learning needs, and guide participants towards achieving their language learning goals.

Summative assessment will be based on final projects or presentations showcasing linguistic and cultural understanding

After passing all the assessment elements, succesful students will recieve a final certificate
